Section 14. When the Board has a decision concerning the appeal of an applicant, the Board shall send a written notice of such decision, together with reasons, to the applicant within fifteen days from the date of the decision.

When the Board has a decision, if the applicant does not agree with the decision of the Board, the applicant shall have the right to bring an action in court within ninety days from the date of receiving the notice of decision. If no action is brought within such period of time, it shall be deemed that the decision of the Board is final.

Section 15. In case that an application for the registration is in accordance with the rules prescribed in Section 5, Section 6, Section 7, Section 8, Section 9 and Section 10 and the Registrar considers it expedient to accept registration with or without condition, the Registrar shall issue an order for publication of the acceptance for registration in accordance with the procedures prescribed in Ministerial Regulations.

Section 16. Within ninety days from the date of publication under Section 15, an interested person may file an opposition against the registration of geographical indication applied to register.

Filing of an opposition under the first paragraph shall be in accordance with the rules and procedures prescribed in Ministerial Regulations.

Section 17. When there is an opposition under Section 16, a copy of the opposition shall be sent to the applicant within fifteen days from the date of the opposition.

The applicant shall file a counter-statement within ninety days from the date of receiving a copy of the opposition, and the competent official shall send a copy of such counter-statement to the opposer. In case that the applicant fails to file a counter-statement, it shall be deemed that the applicant abandons his application.

Section 12 shall apply to the consideration and decision of opposition and counter statement mutatis mutandis.

Section 18. When the Registrar has decided the opposition and counter-statement, the Registrar shall send written notice of decision, together with reasons, to the applicant and the opposer within fifteen days from the date of the decision.

The applicant and the opposer shall have the right to appeal against the decision of the Registrar to the Board within ninety days from the date of receiving a notice of such decision. The appeal shall be in accordance with the rules and procedures prescribed in Ministerial Regulations.

When the Board has a decision, if either party does not agree with the decision of the Board, such party shall have the right to bring an action in court within ninety days from the date of receiving the notice of decision. If no action is brought within such period of time, it shall be deemed that the decision of the Board is final.

Section 19. In the event there is no opposition under Section 16, or there has been an opposition but the Registrar or the Board or the Court, as the case may be, has a final decision under Section 18 or a final judgment to dismiss the opposition, the Registrar shall register the geographical indication applied for registration within fifteen days from the day following the last date of period specified in the first paragraph of Section 16, or the date on which the Registrar receives such decision or judgment, in accordance with the rules and procedures prescribed in Ministerial Regulations.

Section 20. When the Registrar registers a geographical indication under Section 15 or Section 19, the protection of such geographical indication shall take effect as from the date of filing an application for registration.

CHAPTER III

Amendment and Revocation of Registration of Geographical Indications

Section 21. If there is any minor mistake or inaccuracy in the particulars of registration, when the applicant files an application or such minor mistake or inaccuracy appears to the Registrar, the Registrar may have an order to amend such minor mistake or inaccuracy.

Section 22. When the Registrar has accepted registration of a geographical indication under Section 19, if there appears evidence at a later time that the application for registration or the registration was unlawful or fictitious or consisted of particulars deviating from the facts at the time of acceptance for registration, the interested person or competent official may request the Registrar to submit the matter to the Board for a decision to amend or revoke the registration. The amendment or revocation shall be in accordance with the rules and procedures prescribed in Ministerial Regulations.

When the Board has a decision to amend or revoke the registration of a geographical indication under the first paragraph, the Board shall send written notice of the amendment or revocation of registration, together with reasons, to the applicant within fifteen days from the date on which the Board has such a decision and shall publish such amendment or revocation in accordance with the procedures prescribed in Ministerial Regulations.

Section 23. If it shall appear that the situation has changed after the registration under Section 19 and such change has caused the geographical indication consist of any prohibited feature under Section 5 or has caused the particulars concerning geographical origin or other particulars to vary from the registered particulars, the interested person or competent official may request the Registrar to submit the matter to the Board for a decision to amend or revoke the registration and the provisions in the second paragraph of Section 22 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Section 24. Except for the revocation of registration due to reason under Section 5(2), when the Board has a decision to amend or revoke the registration under Section 22 or Section 23, if the interested person does not agree with the decision of the Board, he shall have the right to bring an action in court within ninety days from the date of receiving the notice of decision. If no action is brought within such period of time, it shall be deemed that the decision of the Board is final.

CHAPTER IV

Use and Order for Suspension of Use of Geographical Indications

Section 25. When registration of geographical indication has been effected for any goods, the manufacturers of the goods in the geographical origin of the goods or persons engaging in trade related to the goods shall be eligible to use the registered geographical indication with the goods as specified in accordance with the conditions prescribed by the registrar.

Section 26. In case that any person under Section 25 uses the geographical indication without complying with the conditions as registered, the Registrar shall send written notice requiring such person to comply with the conditions within a period of time prescribed by the Registrar. If that person still fails to comply with the conditions without proper reason within such period of time, the Registrar may issue an order in writing to suspend the use of the geographical indication by such person for a period not exceeding two years from the date of receiving the order.

The person who is subject to suspension of the use of geographical indication under the first paragraph may appeal against an order of the Registrar to the Board within ninety days from the date of receiving the order. The appeal shall be in accordance with the rules and procedures prescribed in Ministerial Regulations.

When the Board has a decision, if such person does not agree with the decision of the Board, such person shall have the right to bring an action in court within ninety days from the date of receiving the notice of decision. If no action is brought within such period of time, it shall be deemed that decision of the Board is final.

Section 27. The following acts shall be deemed unlawful:

(1) The use of a geographical indication to show or mislead other persons that the goods not originating from the geographical origin specified in an application for registration are goods originating from that geographical origin.

(2) The use of a geographical indication in any manner which causes confusion or misunderstanding as to the geographical origin of the goods and the quality, reputation or any other characteristic of the goods so as to cause damage to other traders.

If the act under the first paragraph is done before the date of registration of the geographical indication, it shall be deemed lawful.

CHAPTER V

Protection to Geographical Indications for Specific Goods

Section 28. The Minister may announce any types of goods as specific goods by prescribing them in Ministerial Regulations.

Subject to the fourth paragraph, when there is announcement of any types of goods as specific goods according to the first paragraph, the use of the geographical indication with the goods not originating from the geographical origin specified in the application for registration shall be unlawful even if the user also indicates the true geographical origin of the goods or uses the wording or does any act to indicate the true geographical origin of the goods.

Indication of the true geographical origin of the goods under the second paragraph shall include the use of the expressions "kind", "type", "Style" including any similar expression or the like in conjunction with the geographical indication used with the goods.
